Visit the Artists of Northumberland

In rural areas, directions provided from the nearest county road.
In Cobourg and Port Hope, please refer to the town maps.
Everywhere else, follow the studio tour signs with the blue hills logo.

13.Elizabeth Vercoe – painter, mixed media

Elizabeth's intuitive use of bold colour and line embrace spontaneity. Unrestricted by subject or medium, her paintings are an eclectic mix of painterly realism to abstract play.
Go N. on Cty. Rd. #10 to Cty. Rd. #9 (Ganaraska Road). Turn left [W.] through town of Garden Hill to Beech Hill Rd. Turn left [S.] to # 7228
(905) 373-3661 www.elizabethvercoe.ca

2. Michiko Nakamura – ceramic artist

Michiko's sculpture and ornamental pieces integrate inspiration from nature through a holistic, collaborative approach between the clay, fire and herself.
From Cty. Rd. 28 go west on 5th Line and north on Knoxville Rd. to #6360 at the top of the hill.
(905) 885-0193 www.claymichiko.wordpress.com

3. Pamela Tate (The Tate gallery) – painter

Current works explore the nature of relationships through dynamic movement, stillness, generous support and intimate trust.
From #401 exit 461, go N. to flashing light at Welcome. Continue straight for 2.5 km.; turn left onto Massey Rd. First house on left, #4599 .
(905) 753-2187 www.pamelatate.ca

3A. Susan McDonald (Practically Potty Studio) – potter

Susan is a clay artisan experimenting with color and form. Work ranges from functional to fine art, and studio work reflects broad interests.
A few of her new "Gate series" will also be available.
From Cty. Rd.10 go W on 4th Line to #4166 at the corner with Kellogg Rd.
(905) 753-2731 www.practicallypotty.com

4. Phill & Sandra Boyko – woodturner

In their variety of pieces - wooden bowls, platters, and other woodturned items - they create products which are finely finished and will add considerable beauty to any room. All wood obtained from salvaged local trees. Also crafted ukeleles.
14 Clifton Rd. in Port Hope. woodturning@gmail.com

5. Bill Hornbostel – photographer, W

Bill creates hauntingly beautiful images of landscapes and architecture.
17 Clifton Rd. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-9825 www. billhornbostelphotography.com

5. Susan Lago, Blue Cheese Pottery – ceramic artist

Hand made functional pottery, tiles, cremation urns and jewellery.
Showing with Bill Hornbostel
(905) 885-6965 www.bluecheesepottery@gmail.com

6. Terry Thornton – woodturner

Terry's woodturning includes exquisite salt and pepper mills made from local and exotic woods; unique rolling pins, as well as whimsical hand-turned birdhouses.
From downtown Port Hope go W. up Walton St (becomes Ridout St.). Turn left onto Bramley St. South, three blocks to #62 - accessed from Sherbourne.
(905) 885 0758 www.thorntonwood.ca

7. Dorothy Siemens – Multi-media artist, W

Acrylic abstract paintings, sculpture and mosaic panels, jewellery in polymer and beadwork.
9 Trafalgar Street, Port Hope (entrance off Bramley St. S.)
(905) 885-8879 http://dorothysiemens.com

8. Chris Montgomery – stained glass art & jewellery design

Innovative design incorporating 'found objects' and whimsical accents in both her jewellery and glasswork keeps Chris' work fresh, exciting and interpretive of classical design. Now added are her fur creations.
84, Dorset St. W. in Port Hope. Studio entrance from Pine St. at the end of pedestrian laneway across from Brenda Sullivan's.
(905) 885-6186 www.theglasshopperstudio.com

9. Brenda Sullivan, Dragon Clay – potter

Brenda translates nature's designs into usable artworks. Art Deco tea pots, dragon mugs and every day items are presented in a funk-tional way to lighten your day; sculptures to inspire.
Studio is at 81 ¾ Pine St. S. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-5384 www.dragonclayproductions.com

9. Jeanette Bartosik – art glass beads & jewellery design

For simple elegance that stands the test of time, Jeanette uses solid sterling silver with semi-precious gems or fresh water pearls that are harmoniously aligned with her handmade art glass beads.
Showing with Brenda Sullivan.
www.jeanetteka.com

10. Oliver Steins – photographer

Landcapes display a sense of feeling for the atmosphere and delight in featuring enticing images. Portraits are full of expression.
93 Walton St., Port Hope,
(905) 885-1323 www.oliversteins.com/paintings/

11. Carmel Bouzanne – mixed media artist

Explorations with softer colours has led Carmel to a new, fresh palette. Over the winter she has explored movement through lighter touch, bringing a much anticipated spring into her studio. As for collages come, see what the earth has helped her combine, with the aid of Japanese paper.
192 Walton Street in Port Hope
(905) 885-9266 www.carmelbouzanne.com

12. Marie Melnick – painter

Marie's paintings are not born of direct visual experiences. They are a synthesis of emotions drawn from them, at times, in an arrangement of shapes and rhythms.
2 Hagerman St. in Port Hope
(905) 800-1061 mariemelnick@gmail.com

13. Christine Benson – printmaker/ instructor, W

Linocuts are inspired by nature and combine Japanese papers, hand-stitching, collage and paint which allow experimentation with colour and pattern in a playful way.
At the Old Mill in Port Hope located at the N.E. corner of Molson St. and Hope St. N.
Watch for the short gravel drive.
(905) 885-0908 wwwjourneythroughthearts.com

13. Les Robling – painter, W

Strong brush work and attention to light and shade in landscapes - local and beyond - oils/acrylics/watercolour.
Showing with Christine Benson
(905) 885-4141 www.lesrobling.com

13. Patricia Schevers Papp – acrylics on canvas, W

Painting in a spontaneous manner allows Pat to explore various techniques influenced by the organic rhythms of nature linked with symbolism.
Showing with Christine Benson.
(905) 885-9275

14. Rebecca Last – visual artist/painter, W

Rebecca's canvases capture the light and energy of ever changing views and turbulent weather conditions over Rice Lake.
From Cty. Rd. 45 N. of Roseneath, go N on Merrill Rd. Follow to the stop sign and continue straight through. Turn left at laneway #1026 and follow to cottage #18.
(905) 352-9994 www.rebeccalast.com

W - Washroom available
WCA - Wheelchair accessible studio

15. Heather Cooper – painter, W

A fine and celebrated artist whose work spans 40 + years. Her oil paintings are lush, detailed and inspired by myth and nature.
From Cty. Rd. 45 or Cty. Rd. 9 take Beagle Club Rd. and turn west on Bowmanton to the Galley at #506.
(905) 342-3050 www.heathercooper.com

16. Carole and John Bandurchin – potters

Come see the smashing new glazes on the elegant stoneware pottery Carole and John have created.
From Cty. Rd. 45 in Baltimore, turn E. on Community Centre Rd. Continue 1km and at the curve turn left on Burwash Rd. to #9327.
(905) 372-4174 www.ashburnpottery.com

17. Jerry Albert – painter W, WCA

Landscape and wildlife oil paintings from my travels in N. America - plein air and studio works.
4741 County Road #45, Building #2, Baltimore Industrial Park.
(905) 377-8349 www.jfalbert.com/

18. Marcela Rosemberg – fused and cast glass artist

Marcela is an award-winning glass artist. Beauty, simplicity, elegance and functionality are essential components in her designs. Marcela is always looking for that special blend of colour & texture that leads her to each piece of art she carefully designs.
464 Burnham Manor Court, Cobourg.
(289) 252-0488 marcelarosemberg.com

20. Barbara Buntin – mixed media artist, W

Explore the studio process behind Barbara's mono-type & linocut prints & collage.
215 Bagot St. in Cobourg, first house south of King St.
(905) 372-8535 www.barbarabuntin.com

22. Evelyn Haskell – fabric artist

Unique handcrafts made from vintage fabrics: upcycled hats, bags and stuffed animals; knitted and felted mittens; knitted necklaces; and other woolly treats.
462, George St., Cobourg
(905) 372-8521 evhaskell@sympatico.ca

Like us on Facebook

22. Jenny Duda – Illustrator

Jenny uses atmospheric and vivid colour to capture the heart of Northumberland Hills through her impressionistic acrylic and three dimensional plasticine paintings.
Showing with Evelyn Haskell.
(905)-373-4549 jennyduda13@gmail.com

23. Stephen Gillberry – painter

Known for his colours and texture, Stephen paints in both abstract and impressionistic styles.
He works in a variety of sizes ranging from very large canvases to small works on paper.
301 College St., Cobourg, at the corner of Chapel St. Studio entrance through the carport on Chapel.
(905) 377-8277 www.gillberry.com

24. Katie Flindall – paintings, prints, cards

Tree houses and starry skies under which children play, are a signature of Katie's work. Her bright and lively paintings capture the imagination, magic and journey through childhood.
110 Chapel St. in Cobourg
(289) 252-0534 www.moonhouseart.com

25. Kitty Munro (The Glass Garden) – stained glass.

Stained glass, fused glass, jewellery, garden décor, ornaments and glass art made with recycled glass.
125 Abbott Blvd. in Cobourg
(905) 373-4822 www.glassgarden.ca

25. Erica Ash – painter

Erica paints in watercolour and acrylics, focusing on animals and animal portraiture. Her realistic work has her subjects in slightly surrealistic settings but always showing love for them.
Showing with Kitty Munro.
(613) 475-9834 ericaash@bell.net

26. Anja Hertle – mosaic artist, WCA

Anja's passion - creating intricate, 3-D pictures using recycled china, tile, stained glass, beads, buttons and occasional fork.
10821 Cty. Rd. 2 in Grafton, west of Cty. Rd. 23/Lyle St. Watch for the driveway entrance on the S. side just W. of the Post Office.
(905) 349-1032 www.anjahertle.com

27. Allan Short - photographer , W

To Allan's way of thinking, images are not only taken for how they appear, but more importantly how they will appear.
East of Lyle St. in Grafton on County Road #2; S. side of road, number 10929, the one with the tower.
(905) 349-2793 http://polar01photography.smugmug.com/

28. Mary Lou Burnside – glass artist

In her studio on the hill, Mary Lou designs and creates functional, decorative, and wearable glass art. She also creates art for garden, multimedia pieces incorporating glass, metal, wood and found objects.
10945 County Rd. 2, Box 262, Grafton.
(905) 269-3999 www.maryloubumside.ca

29. Edward Hagedorn – painter, W

Ed paints the landscapes of his gardens, pond and stream and surrounding countryside with an emphasis on the playful use of colour.
From Cty. Rd 2 on the east side of Colborne, turn N. onto Parliament St. From 401 go S. on Percy Street and turn E. [left] at light onto Purdy St. for 2.3 km to Parliament St. Turn S. Look for octagonal house at #45 Parliament.
(905) 372-2805 www.edwardhagedorn.ca

30. San Murata – painter

An illustrator of international distinction, San's folk art landscapes and everyday scenes reflect his light, masterful style and a magical sense of place.
From Cty. Rd. 2 east of Grafton go north on Shelter Valley Rd. Continue past Vernonville and turn north on Ward Lane to #131.
(905)344-7828 www.sanmurata.com

31. Nancy Gagne – cold process soap maker

Pure & Natural Handmade Herbal Soaps.
904 County Rd 25, Castleton, at the corner of County Rd 21, 4 km N. of the 401
(905) 344-7030 www.northumberlandsoapworks.com

32. Gary Orpana – woodturner, W

Using local material obtained from dead and dying trees, Gary creates heirlooms accentuating the colours, textures and natural beauty of the wood.
From Cty. Rd. 25 go E. on Cty. Rd. 21. Continue 7.5 km to #14396. The house is at the top of the hill.
(905) 344-7300 mygreencathedral.com

33. Barry King, Gallery by the Grove - W, WCA

Pen and inks, watercolours and prints, inspired by local architecture and landscapes.
From Cty. Rd. 22, north on Jakobi Rd. (flashing light) 4 km., west on Dunbar Rd. 2 km. to 12162 Dunbar Rd. From Cty. Rd. 29 at Oak Heights, south on Covert Hill Rd., Clarkson Rd., west on Dunbar Rd.
DO NOT follow Google directions.
(905)344-7175 northumberlandarts.ca

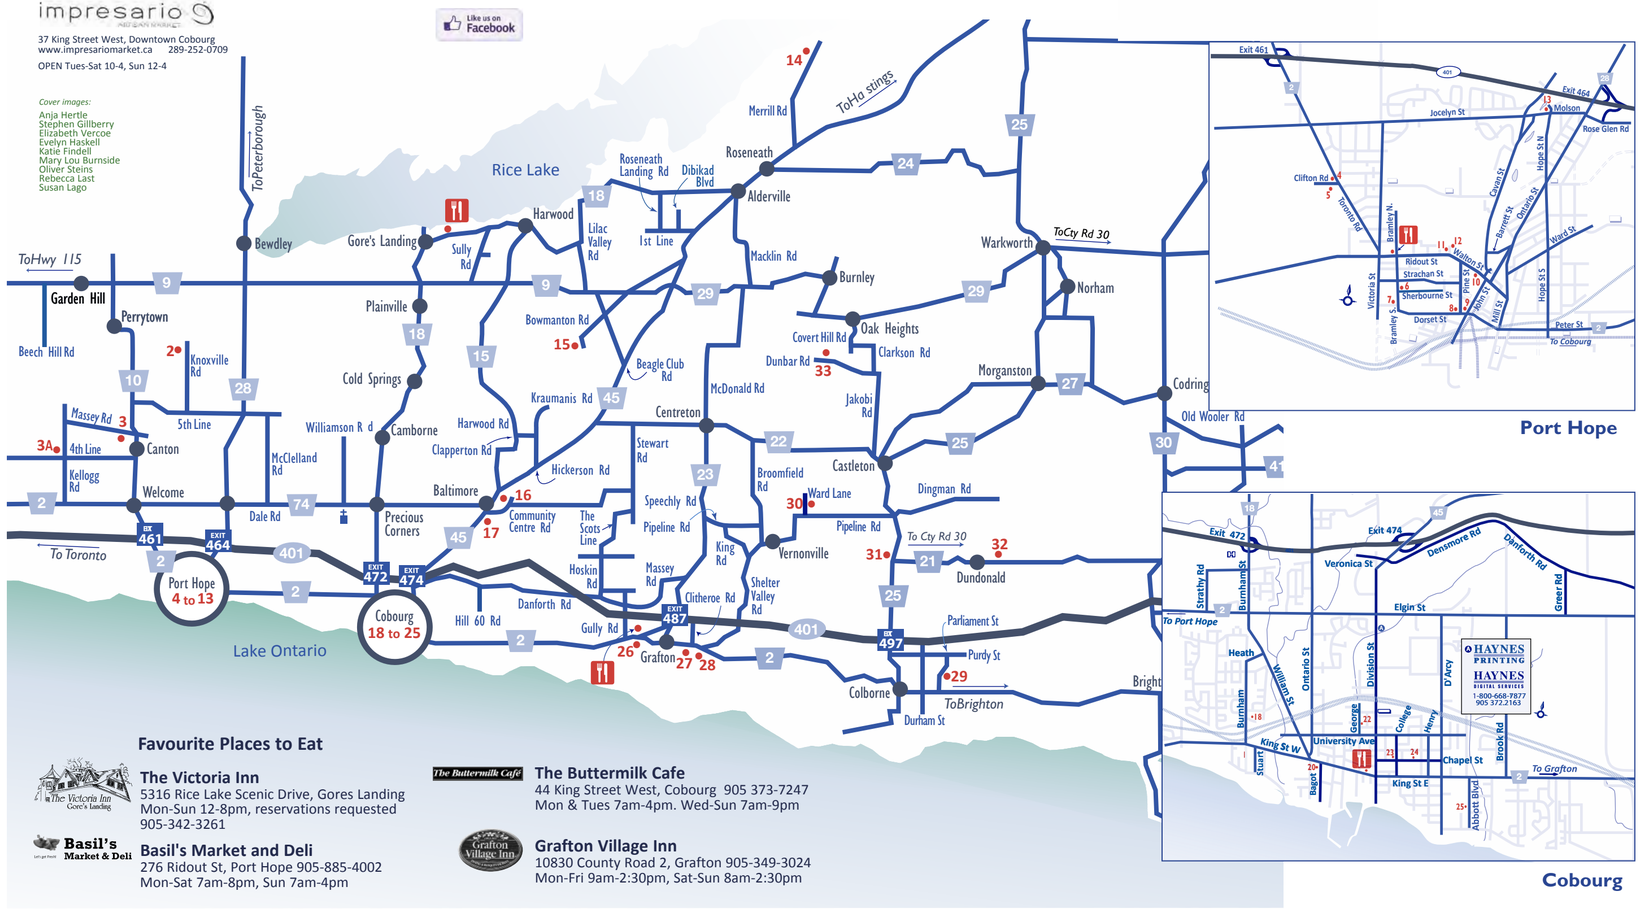
$ Many artists accept credit cards, everyone accepts cash.

13. Elizabeth Vercoe – painter, mixed media
2. Michiko Nakamura – ceramic artist
3. Pamela Tate (The Tate gallery) – painter
3A. Susan McDonald (Practically Potty Studio) – potter
4. Phill & Sandra Boyko – woodturner
5. Bill Hornbostel – photographer
5. Susan Lago (Blue Cheese Pottery)– ceramic artist
6. Terry Thornton – woodturner
7. Dorothy Siemens – multi-media artist
8. Chris Montgomery – stained glass art & jewellery design
9. Brenda Sullivan (Dragon Clay) – potter
9. Jeanette Bartosik – art glass beads & jewellery design
10. Oliver Steins – photographer
11. Carmel Bouzanne – mixed media artist
12. Marie Melnick – painter
13. Christine Benson – printmaker/ instructor
13. Les Robling – painter
13. Patricia Schevers Papp – acrylics on canvas
14. Rebecca Last – visual artist/painter
15. Heather Cooper – painter
16. Carole and John Bandurchin – potters
17. Jerry Albert – painter
18. Marcela Rosemberg – fused and cast glass artist
20. Barbara Buntin – mixed media artist
22. Evelyn Haskell – fabric artist
22. Jenny Duda – illustrator
23. Stephen Gillberry – painter
24. Katie Flindall – paintings, prints, cards
25. Kitty Munro (The Glass Garden) – stained glass
25. Erica Ash – painter
26. Anja Hertle – mosaic artist
27. Allan Short – photographer
28. Mary Lou Burnside – glass artist
29. Edward Hagedorn – painter
30. San Murata – painter
31. Nancy Gagne – cold process soap maker
32. Gary Orpana – woodturner
33. Barry King (Gallery by the Grove) – painter/illustrator

impresario
ARTS AND CRAFTS MARKET
37 King Street West, Downtown Cobourg
www.impresariomarket.ca 289-252-0709
OPEN Tues-Sat 10-4, Sun 12-4

Like us on Facebook

Cover images:
Anja Hertle
Stephen Gillberry
Elizabeth Vercoe
Evelyn Haskell
Katie Findell
Mary Lou Burnside
Oliver Steins
Rebecca Last
Susan Lago



Port Hope

Cobourg

Favourite Places to Eat

The Victoria Inn
5316 Rice Lake Scenic Drive, Gores Landing
Mon-Sun 12-8pm, reservations requested
905-342-3261

Basil's Market and Deli
276 Ridout St, Port Hope 905-885-4002
Mon-Sat 7am-8pm, Sun 7am-4pm

The Buttermilk Cafe
44 King Street West, Cobourg 905 373-7247
Mon & Tues 7am-4pm. Wed-Sun 7am-9pm

Grafton Village Inn
10830 County Road 2, Grafton 905-349-3024
Mon-Fri 9am-2:30pm, Sat-Sun 8am-2:30pm

Northumberland Hills Studio Tour

SEPTEMBER 13 & 14

SATURDAY & SUNDAY
10am to 5pm
Free Admission
Follow the studio tour signs

2014 is our 19th year - 40 artists will be in their studios, ready to amaze you